Monument
Worthy of Mt. Rushmore

NAME_____

In this project, you will recreate Mt. Rushmore using the heads of important characters from a story or novel you have just read. You will select four characters from the story, draw or glue their faces on your mountain, and write a brief description of each figure.

Directions:

1. Paste your likeness of Mt. Rushmore onto a piece of paper.
2. On the top of your paper place the title and author of the short story or novel you read.
3. Determine the four characters from the story who are worthy of being placed on your mountain.
4. You will draw (or cut out and glue) pictures of each character's head to fit its assigned space on the mountain.
5. Underneath each head you will write a brief description explaining the character's accomplishment and why it made him worthy of this position.
6. Write your name on the reverse side of your paper.

Rubric for Worthy of Mt. Rushmore:

_____title and author of story is at the top of paper (5 points)

_____first head shows character likeness with description of character's accomplishment (15 points)

_____second head shows character likeness with description of character's accomplishment (15 points)

_____third head shows character likeness with description of character's accomplishment (15 points)

_____fourth head shows character likeness with description of character's accomplishment (15 points) _____correct grammar, punctuation, capitalization, spelling, complete sentences (20 points)

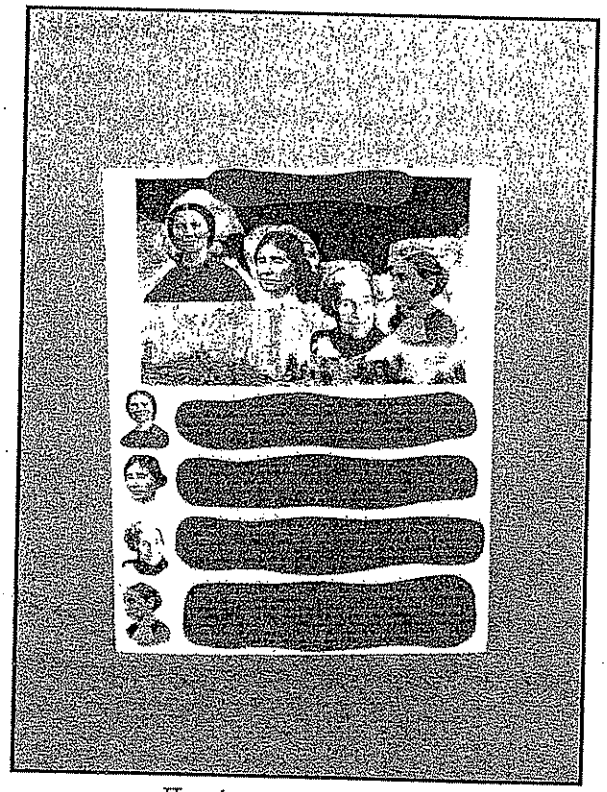
_____project is neat in appearance (15 points)

_____your name is on the reverse side (5 points)

_____FINAL GRADE/100



Heroic women in American history